FEATURED ARTIST: PERSIAN ARTIST SHOLEH JANATI - WESTPORT, CT

New York-based Sholeh Janati grew up in Tehran, Iran with a passion for art and painting. Her original training was classical Renaissance style oil portraits and figurative works. Her life — and her creativity froze following an arranged marriage. All Sholeh had after that was her daughter, who became a driving force of her life.

Additionally, Sholeh had lived through ten years of war in her home country since her early teens. She managed to escape with her 4-year-old to America to find freedom and the pursuit of happiness. While going to school in New York and raising her child on her own, she reinvigorated her passion for painting. Her works were soon discovered by art collectors and art enthusiasts — which became a new beginning for the rest of her life and her career. Her work will be displayed at the 59th International Biennale Arte 2022 in Venice.
